

THE TIMES-DISPATCH: RICHMOND, VA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1904.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN (BY HARRY TUCKER)

We have always been a willing worker, ever since we got into politics during the regime of the old Street Committee...

Therefore, we arise to make a profound and identified kick. We cannot see why the man should have been taken down by the man inside the...

Now, we hope everybody's satisfied. And, thank goodness, we won't have another like it for four years.

After we get over this headache, we shall go back to hard work and try to forget it.

We never got into a political squabble yet that we didn't get the worst of it in a jam.

And we have just got out of the jam. And we have just got out of the jam. And we are already aching for the congressional campaign to start a-going.
